OFFICE OF STRATEGIC SERVICES
WASHINGTON, D. C.

2 June 1944

SUBJECT: James Goodrich McCarger.

DEAD... To Registry

TO : Lt. Colonel D. M. Gregory, 402 Kohl Building, 406 Montgomery Ave.,
San Francisco, California.

1. The R & A Branch desires to obtain the services of James Goodrich McCarger who is at present in San Domingo with the State Department.

2. Mr. McCarger is reported to have recently had a pre-induction physical examination at Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic. He has registered with Local Board 112, Santa Clara County, California, 514 Bryant St., Palo Alto. His order number is E-2449.

3. While Mr. Hoot of R & A Branch is awaiting SA-1 forms and a letter from Mr. McCarger, it would be very much appreciated if your office would get in touch with Local Board 112 and ascertain the present status of Mr. McCarger, whether he is to be inducted and if so, on what date and where.

To: Capt F. M. Bishop, AGD FROM: Lt. Col. Donald M. Gregory

~~SECRET~~

1. The local board states that the file on the subject has been forwarded to National Hqs., Washington for process. This is the new standard procedure for persons outside the continental US. They state also that his classification is 1-A, and that he is undoubtedly in the midst of the process now in his present location and will probably be called unless the State Dept. intercedes with a request for deferment. He is under 26 yrs of age. His file will be returned to Palo Alto upon determination of his status.
